AIN'T DONE BAD

about the show.

Ain't Done Bad is a story of becoming. A world premiere by choreographer Jakob Karr, the show dives deep into the emotional core of growing up gay in the South, exploring the creator's experience of growing up, coming out, and finding love. Ain't Done Bad features the music of Orville Peck and uses dance to celebrate the journey of leaving shame behind to embrace your authentic, vulnerable voice.

JAKOB KARR (Creator, Ain't Done Bad)

Originally from Orlando, Florida, Jakob had the pleasure of growing up around theme parks and watching dancers from a very young age. At twelve years old he began dancing and the rest is history! He has been fortunate enough to perform all over the country as well as most of Europe, Australia, Japan and India. Some of his credits include: Cirque Du Soleil's VOLTA; So You Think You Can Dance Season 6 - Runner Up; The RADIO CITY New York Spectacular (Mia Michaels); Rock the Ballet; VIVA ELVIS by Cirque Du Soleil; Kiss Me Kate at Barrington Stage; The 82nd Annual Academy Awards; America's Got Talent; GLEE; Company XIV.
